

Platanos College News

Thursday 9th November 2017

Doctors in Training

Three students from King's College London came to spend some time with the Year 8 and Year 11 Most Able pupils. Pupils learnt about the demands of studying medicine and were able to experience hands on how to suture wounds, take blood and monitor blood pressure.

