

Platanos College News

Thursday 15th January 2015

Platanos College crowned the first ever Junior NBA Basketball League Champions

We are extremely proud to announce that Platanos College were crowned champions of the inaugural Junior NBA Basketball England League today!

The trophy was presented by NBA legend Dikembe Mutombo, with the winners of the competition receiving exclusive invitations to an official dinner with NBA legends and VIP tickets to the NBA global games at the O2 arena!

It was a fantastic final game between Platanos and St. Bonaventure as the two teams battled it out with an NBA basketball legend courtside, who witnessed Platanos claim victory by 27-21.

A very well done indeed to our winning team!

Photograph from Basketball England

Attitude Determines Altitude

Team members: Ahmed Kahssia; Brandon Thomas; Da Shane Monfies; Denilson Caschili; Janali Miller Reid; Lemar Beckford; Lemar Elson James; Rashawon Graham; Vasharn Mignott; Zied Talaboulma.

One of our champions, Brandon, said: "This is truly amazing. We have put so much hard work into this and winning the competition was our aim. Our skills and level of teamwork were at its best today."

Attitude Determines Altitude